

Vinoce Vineyards
Sauvignon Blanc
2003 Napa Valley

Tasting Notes:

As you may know, I am a magician; a member in good standing of The Magic Castle in Hollywood. What I have conjured up here for your delight and delectation is a cabernet sauvignon so delicious and at such a reasonable price, one might ask "How does he do it?" Music to a magician's ears! I assure you that there was nothing up my sleeve, just good fermentation techniques I learned at my father's knee while growing up on our Napa Valley winemaking estate.

Sourcing the grapes from the Lauchland Vineyards, Cranston Vineyards and some fruit from our own Napa hillside, I have crafted a claret-style wine with the flavors of sweet-dark cherries and blackberries with a hint of oak on the palate; flavors that go down easily and pair well with about any meal you may pull out of your culinary hat.

TA DA! & Enjoy!

Judd Finkelstein

Winemaking Notes:

Vineyard: Cranston Vineyards, Lodi, California